

The neighborhood below could be right around the corner from you. Can you find things in this picture that you think could damage the environment or pollute your neighborhood water supply? What are your ideas to fix what's wrong?

